Parking

Parking at the Jubilee Centre is limited and therefore the car park will be restricted to those with mobility issues or a need to park nearby. Please contact the Office on 0114 2682555 or email ben@citychurchsheffield.org.uk to book a space in the car park.

There are a few free parking spaces on the roads around the Jubilee Centre (Wilson Road, Botanical Road, Bristol Road, Wigfull Road and Dover Road), but do be careful that you don't park in Residents' Only bays. There is paid parking on the main road but it is limited to 2 or 4 hours. We recommend you park on the roads within the red rectangles on the map below which are free, and are approximately 10 minutes walk to the Jubilee Centre (marked as 'A' on the map).

Please do check parking signs to ensure you have parked legally.

Coming by Train

The following buses go from the Bus Interchange down Ecclesall Road - 81, 82, 83, 85 and 88/88A. To catch them, you will need to walk to the Bus Interchange – ask for directions from the Train Station. Get off around 100 yards after the Berkley Precinct (looks like a car park with Tesco Metro behind it). Use the map above to navigate to the Jubilee Centre.

If you take a taxi, then ask them to take you to the Old Synagogue off Ecclesall Road, opposite the Porterbrook Pub, near the Polish Club.
